Dear Mr. Ratzlaff:

On July 7 and 8, 2009, our church hosted Dale Ratzlaff, Paul Carden, and Richard and Colleen Tinker for an event called A Comparison of Adventism and Evangelical Christianity. This series of three seminars was incredibly beneficial both to me and the members of our church. We live in an area that is heavily populated by Adventists, so we saw this event as an opportunity to more fully understand what they believe and teach.

Dale Ratzlaff's Biblical teaching was backed up by sound research, fair interpretation, and a gracious demeanor. He presented himself as one who is concerned about people and the doctrinal purity of the church, not just someone who is 'out to get Adventists.' Our leadership and people came away with a better understanding of how to talk to their Adventist friends, and our faith was strengthened as Dale brought to life the pure gospel of salvation by faith in the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

I recommend to you Dale and his presentations comparing the teachings of Adventism and Evangelical Christianity. Not only will your people learn about Adventism, but their own faith in Jesus Christ will be strengthened.

In Christ,

Pastor Blair Hayward
